

THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

11 June 1962

Dear Mr. McCone:

It is a pleasure to report the successful completion on June 8 of The National War College Course by [redacted] of the Central Intelligence Agency.

STAT

[redacted] has been a serious student during the year and respected for his contributions to the student committees with which he has worked. His Individual Research Paper on the subject of Civil Defense was regarded by the faculty as Outstanding, and he has generally demonstrated fine intellectual qualities.

It has been a pleasure to have [redacted] with us as a student. I feel confident that his service to the government will take on even greater value as a result of his experience and associations this year.

STAT

Sincerely yours,

Willard L. Beaufac
Willard L. Beaufac

Deputy Commandant for Foreign Affairs

The Honorable
John McCone
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
W. L. Beaufac

THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

11 June 1962

Dear Mr. McCone:

I am happy to report the successful completion on June 8 of The National War College Course by [redacted] of the Central Intelligence Agency.

STAT

[redacted] has demonstrated a capacity for serious work during the year. He has made substantial contributions to the committee projects and has gained the respect of the faculty and his fellow students. His Individual Research Paper was rated as "Excellent" in both its oral and written forms.

It has been a pleasure to have [redacted] with us as a student. I am confident that his service to your agency and to the government as a whole will take on even greater value as a result of his experiences and associations this year.

STAT

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in ink, appearing to read "Willard L. Beaulac".

Deputy Commandant for Foreign Affairs

The Honorable
John McCone
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

(EXECUTIVE REGISTRY FILE)

A handwritten signature in ink, appearing to read "Willard L. Beaulac", written over the "EXECUTIVE REGISTRY FILE" stamp.

62-4174

THE NATIONAL WAR COLLEGE
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

11 June 1962

Dear Mr. McCone:

I am happy to report the successful completion on June 8 of The National War College Course by [redacted] of the Central Intelligence Agency.

STAT

[redacted] has applied himself diligently during the year and he demonstrated an excellent capability in all phases of the course. He has consistently made valued contributions to the discussion groups and committees with which he has worked and his own background has been most helpful. The Individual Research Paper which [redacted] presented on the subject of the Argentine Political Situation was given high ratings in both its oral and written form.

It has been a pleasure to have [redacted] with us as a student. I feel confident that his service to your agency and to the government as a whole will take on even greater value as a result of his experiences and associations this year.

STAT

Sincerely yours,

Willard L. Beaulac

Deputy Commandant for Foreign Affairs

The Honorable
John McCone
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

(EXEMPTED FROM AUTOMATIC DOWNGRADING AND DECLASSIFICATION) 